

CHALLENGE 2: ANSWERS 10 flowers marked on the map

1

The snowdrop has lots of local names. Which one of the following is made up?

B: White Fairy

2

The name for a dandelion is derived from the French "Dent du lion". What does this mean?

A: Lion's teeth

3

Wood sorrel folds up its leaves at night and because of this is often known locally as?

A: Sleeping beauty

4

Approximately how many micro species of bramble are there?

B: 400

5

The foxglove is poisonous but also contains an important drug called digitalin. This drug is used on the?

C: Heart

6

The honeysuckle is sometimes known as the?

C: Trumpet flower

7

The meaning of the word "dog" in the name dog rose is?

B: Worthless

8

Wood anemone mainly grows by spreading its roots. Roughly how long does it take for a 2m patch to form?

C: 100 years

9

Rosebay willow herb was one of the first things to grow back after World War 2 earning it the nick name?

C: Bomb weed

10

Which of the following is true? In ancient Greece, priests would present an ivy wreath to newly married couples as a symbol of?

A: Faithfulness